

Oil and Gas Tax Agreement Between The Three Affiliated Tribes And State of North Dakota

This Oil and Gas Tax Agreement (“Agreement”) is between the State of North Dakota and the Three Affiliated Tribes (“Tribes”). The State through its Office of the Governor (“the State”) and the Tribes through their Tribal Business Council, the duly established governing body of the Tribes, hereby agree to the following:

A. Statement of Intent

The intent of this Agreement is to:

3. Provide for an efficient method of taxation and regulation of oil and gas production and extraction within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Berthold Reservation including lands held in trust by the United States and lands held in fee simple status;
4. Distribute the revenue from those taxes in an agreed upon manner that reflects the governmental roles of the State and the Tribes as sovereign parties to this Agreement; and
5. Avoid litigation relating to each party’s jurisdiction to impose its taxes on oil and gas production and extraction within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Berthold Reservation.

B. Sovereign Immunity

Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as diminishing or enhancing the sovereign rights of the parties, including the sovereign immunity of the parties, except as may be specifically provided herein, nor shall this Agreement be permitted to be used in any way by either party in any litigation brought by any person including the parties to this Agreement other than with respect to enforcement of this Agreement. In the event of a conflict with any other provision of this Agreement, the terms of Paragraph B shall prevail and control.

- b. The Tribal Business Council, under § 5 (d) of Article VI of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Three Affiliated Tribes, has authority to enter into this Agreement with the State of North Dakota.
- c. The parties specifically acknowledge that the Tribes have jurisdiction to impose production and extraction taxes on oil and gas activities on trust lands within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Berthold Reservation.

2. State Authority

- a. The State, subject to inherent limitations on Indian Reservations, asserts jurisdiction to tax oil and gas activities on the Fort Berthold Reservation.
- b. The Governor, under North Dakota Century Code § 57-51.2-01, has authority to enter into this Agreement with the Tribes relating to the taxation of oil and gas production and extraction within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Berthold Reservation.
